

Contents

Taking Up Space: An Introduction Anke Ortlepp and Christoph Ribbat	i
What Is Suburbia? Naming the Layers in the Landscape, 1820-2000 Dolores Hayden	1
Urban Space in the 19th Century American West Brigitte Georgi-Findlay	21
How Daring She Was! The 'Female American Colony' at Leipzig University, 1877-1914 Anja Becker	31
City of Militarism and Progressivism: Americans in Berlin, 1888-1917 Alexander Sedlmaier	47
Creating Imperial Urban Spaces: Baguio and the American Empire in the Philippines, 1898-1920 Frank Schumacher	59
"This Land Is My Land:" American Environmental History and the Dust Bowl Disaster Christof Mauch	77
"What Is the Western Hemisphere?" Spatial Dimensions of United States Interventionist Policy, 1938-1941 Uwe Lübken	89
From el barrio to Fifth Avenue: Puerto Ricans in New York City Silke Hensel	109

Neighborhood Memorials: 'Jewish' Space in New York and Berlin Tobias Brinkmann	123
Spaces Out Somewhere: The American Land Artists Robert Smithson and Michael Heizer Sigrid Ruby	139
Between the Ropes: The Spaces of Boxing and the American Writer Christoph Ribbat	155
Las Vegas – From Space to Place Ingrid Eumann	169
Cities for Sale: Merchandizing History at South Street Seaport M. Christine Boyer	179
The Postsexual City? Times Square in the Age of Virtual Reproduction Bart Eeckhout	199
Index	217
Contributors	225