

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
 Martin Butler, Arvi Sepp, Patrick R. Burger
Introduction: On the Intermedial and Institutional Dimensions of Popular Music	1
 Lars Eckstein
'Talking Without Speaking' in Mike Nichols's The Graduate : Some Reflections on the Rhetoric of Song Lyrics in Film Scores	11
 Emma McEvoy
"I had to have this talk with you": Remediation in Gothic Music	27
 Patrick R. Burger
The Nexus of Michael Moorcock's Eric of Melniboné and Blue Öyster Cult: The Intermediality of Fantasy and Rock 'n' Roll	37
 Thomas M. Kitts
The Romantic Protest of Mid to Late 1960s Rock Music	55
 Lee Templeton
The Subversive Power of Selling Out: Popular Music and Advertising	71
 Jens Martin Gurr
"Shakey's" 40 Years of Zigzag: Neil Young between Commerce and the Counterculture	83

Peter Dawson Buckland

Metallica's "Blackened" as the Sound of the Late Cold War 103

Denis Simon

Murder, Violence, Faith, and Doubt: Legal Culture and Religion in the Songs of Nick Cave, 1996-2008 119

Frank Erik Pointner

Pressing the Gay Issue: The Rise and Fall of the Tom Robinson Band 139

Christoph Reinfandt

Going Fetal with the Eels: The Autobiographical Self in Alternative Rock 155

Court Carney

"All of My Maps Have Been Overthrown":
Wilco and the Politics of Identity in Modern American Culture 175

Thomas M. Kitts

Anti-Flag: Political Punk and Activism – An Interview with Justin Sane 187

Notes on Contributors 199